WASHINGTON MEDALS.

COPPER, BRASS, and WHITE METAL.

SIZE.

22.50	758	Declaration of Independence Medal. A very beautiful and exceedingly rare medal by C. C. Wright. Ob. signing of the Declaration of Independence, copied from Trumbull's Picture; above is inscribed Declaration of, and below Independence, July 4, 1776; rev. a very long description of important events, commencing with the "Discovery of North America by the English, July 3, 1497, &c." above the tablet, is a scene representing a boat approaching the shore, upon which are trees and rocks, an Indian secreted behind the latter; in the offing is a vessel hove to with her sails furled; beneath the tablet is a harbor, with a storehouse, ship ping, lighthouse, and articles of Commerce	56
		I am aware this medal does not necessarily belong to the Washington Series, but being struck from one of the dies of the original medal, it will form a most excellent companion to it.
1.27	759	"George Washington"; bust to left; rev. "tomb of Washington," "Mount Vernon, Virginia." Very fine	40
